

MYQHA Meeting
July 12, 2008
MN Rochester Classic

President Amy Mandelke called the meeting to order at 12:49 PM. Members present included: Amy Mandelke, Taylor Briggs, Tyler Larson, Lisa Mandelke, Caitlin Johnson, Paige Wacker, Kate Melton, Ashley Beim, Kristen Eklin, Lindsay Klinkhammer and Brian Schrader.

The secretary's report from the May 25, 2008 meeting was read. The report was approved as read with no additional changes.

Caitlin Johnson reported the current balance is $9016.70. The treasurer's report was approved as read.

The youth fundraiser for the MN Rochester Classic was discussed. Youth are encouraged to get people at the show to sign up teams of four to compete in the "Horse Carnival" to be held after Western Riding Saturday evening.

Julie Larson reported that the Regional Experience would like several youth to volunteer their time to help with office errands and handing out ribbons. Anyone available or interested should contact Julie as soon as possible.

It was decided that Verndale and Windom will be MYQHA's last fund raisers for this show season. Ideas for Verndale's fund raiser are still being considered. MYQHA will be delivering stall shavings in Windom. There may also be an additional volleyball tournament that weekend.

Julie Larson reminded everyone that MYQHA clothing is still available to buy.

Lindsay Klinkhammer asked for the names of all those going to Youth World from Minnesota. She would like to get names printed for decorations and Youth World polos. Anyone who knows the whereabouts of Minnesota's stall curtains for Youth World is asked to contact Julie Larson.

Amy Mandelke reported on the YES conference in Amarillo. The two youth who went from Minnesota were Amy and Lisa Mandelke along with Julie Larson. They enjoyed touring and meeting new people at the conference. They encourage other youth to go in the future!

Julie Larson asked everyone to consider whom they would like to nominate for officers and board of directors for 2009. Also what youth would like for year-end top 6 awards.

Lindsay Klinkhammer motioned to end the meeting, Kristen Eklin seconded, all were in favor and the motion passed.
