No secretary report was available to be read.

The treasurer's report was read. No new transactions have been made. The banquet fundraiser profit is expected to be $440. The jump and trail set up will bring in $150.

The welcoming committee reported on an overall success for this show. Many of the welcomed youth met here helped with the jump and trail setup. As some of these youth came to the meeting introductions were made.

Old business: Laura Malone brought in the leftover top six prizes in. Sarah Lindblom made a motion to sell the boot bags for $5 and the bridle bags for $10 at the tack swap, Megan Eckstein seconded, motion passed.

The membership committee reported on the WSCA show in Fergus Falls they plan to attend. Along with meeting other quarter horse owners they plan to give away prizes to top quarter horses in various youth classes. Danielle Paulson made a motion to give away MYQHA sweatshirts and t-shirts as prizes, Taylor Greig seconded, motion passed.

New business: Along with the region three advertising fundraiser that youth are asked to continue to work on, other fundraising ideas were discussed. Ideas include: training class, people auction, Wii competition, dinner, fear factor, and bike race. The bike race idea was expanded into a relay event. Megan Eckstein made a motion to use this for the March Winona, Taylor Greig seconded, motion passed. There will be four people per team. Price per team will be $40. Events include: barrel bike race, puzzle, jumps, and a surprise drink or food. The winning team will receive $40 back, a trophy, and picture in the newsletter and website. The top two teams will be auctioned off with the winning bidder receiving half the profit.

Sarah Lindblom made a motion to adjourn the meeting at 6:45, Megan Eckstein seconded, motion passed.
